A FATAL SHOT.

Husband of a Russell County Lady Receives a Fatal Wound.

VICTIM LIVED BUT A FEW HOURS.

Grant Myers, living East of Greenwood, Ind., died at St. Vincent's Hospital Tuesday afternoon from blood poisoning, following a gunshot wound in the arm inflicted by his brother-in-law, Robert L. Shirley, Sunday morning. Shirley is in jail at Franklin on the charge of murder.

Shirley and Myers were brothers-in-law, the former having married the sister of his victim several years ago. Although living opposite each other on their respective farms near Greenwood for many years, there has long been bitter feeling between the two men.

The Culmination started Friday night at a special meeting of the Masonic Lodge at Greenwood, given in honor of a former member who had arrived from a Western city for a short visit.

Myers belonged to the order at Franklin and Shirley at Greenwood. Myers was invited to attend the anniversary meeting but soon after his arrival in the Lodge room he learned that there were some objections for which he blamed his brother-in-law, but he immediately left the lodge room.

Sunday morning about 9 o'clock he started from his home farm to another he owned, and met Shirley driving out into the road from his barn lot. A few words were passed, and Shirley leaving his horse and buggy went to his house, returning with a revolver. Myers started to his house also but before reaching his yard gate stopped and turned back, meeting Shirley again at the same place. More words were exchanged when Shirley fired one shot from his revolver. The bullet struck Myers in the left arm just above the elbow, ranging upward cutting the main artery.

Myers walked back to his house and Drs. Craig and Cox were summoned. After failing to locate the ball he was hurried to the St. Vincent Hospital, Indianapolis, where the best of surgical aid was administered, but to no avail. On Monday morning, finding that gangrene had set in along the wound no time was lost by the physicians in removing the injured arm at the shoulder in an effort to save his life. On Tuesday 2:15 o'clock he died after which another search was made locating the ball in his left side just under the arm. The funeral was held Friday at 10:40 o'clock at the Christian church, Greenwood, conducted by Rev. Burkhardt, assisted by Rev. E. L. Williams.

Myers was a member of several different orders in which he stood high, as was clearly demonstrated by the members in conducting the funeral services. He was laid to rest in the Greenwood cemetery. Mr. Myers' wife was a Miss Lawless of Russell county.

Lee A. Lawless.

An Open Letter.

Columbia Ky., March 1st, 1911,
Hon. Luther Perryman
Pellyton, Ky.

My Dear Sir,

After considering the many solicitations of prominent Republicans of Adair and Cumberland counties, and in fact from every part of the State, I have decided to announce myself a candidate, subject to the action of the Republican party for the nomination to represent this Legislative District in the next General Assembly of Ky. (Lower Branch) and being aware of the anxiety of the National Congress to learn the views of the several aspirants for Legislative honors in this District upon all questions now interesting both State and Nation—publicly discussed, I suggest that we make a list of appointments, beginning at a very early date to continue until the Primary or Convention nominates as the Governing authority of the G. O. P. directs, discussing the election or appointment of a Tariff Commission. The Bill Authorizing Reciprocity between the United States, and the Dominion of Canada. The election of United States Senators by popular vote. Initiative and referendum, the Recall, the dog tax, the Road Bridge laws, State wide Prohibition, the several plans of local option, their effect upon State, County, Cities and towns. Whether or not Prohibition prohibits, in order that the entire voting population may thoroughly understand our several positions upon all of these important questions. You will also be called on to let your position be known on the Bill that will come up during the next session creating a State Superintendent at a good salary, for the Notary Publics of the Commonwealth. Having bravely borne the colors of my country at the memorable battle of Santiago, climbed the San Juan hill when shot and shell filled the air, the ground covered with the dead and dying, and faced the bow and arrow in the hands of the fierce Phillipino, with nothing with which to defend myself, but side arms, Gatling guns and a Cragg jorgison, I must express my surprise that a man of not sufficient years to answer his country's call should earnestly oppose me for this honor after taking into consideration the services I have rendered my country and the sacrifices I have made in its behalf. I have the honor to be yours truly.

Bob Pennycuff,
Ex-Veteran Spanish American War.

A Frightful Accident.

Mr. R. A. Myers and family who have been visiting in Tulsa, Okla., report a frightful accident that happened just before they left for Monticello. Mr. Myers, his son, Robt Page, his sister, Miss Mary Myers, and a Miss Rogers, were in an automobile, riding over the city. They came to a railroad crossing and seeing no train, moved on, but just as they got on the track, a car struck the automobile, knocking out the occupants, and demolishing one side of the machine. Robt. Page received bruises about the face and body, all the rest escaping, but they were frightened out of their wits.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued from the Adair county Clerk's office during the month of February.
Tandy H. Cook and S. May Burton.
John A. Neagle and Pearl Farris.
B. B. Coffey and Maggie Redford.
Jo Z. Conover and Grace Dudley.
Achilles Martin and Bessie Brown.
J. W. Powell and Bellzona McElroy.
Perry Edmonson and Victoria Barr.
Willis Wilburn and Victoria Green.
Harrison Green and Antha Blakey.
Leonard James and Lillie Jesse.
Charley Burton and Elsie Powell.
Luke Wethington and Lena Wolford.

Basket Ball Game.

A very exciting game of basket ball was played in the gymnasium room of the Lindsey-Wilson School last Saturday night. The contest was between a Monticello team and boys of the Lindsey Wilson. The game was called at 8 o'clock and it was exciting from the beginning. A large crowd witnessed the contest both sides having good backing. The contest terminated, 17 to 24 in favor of the Lindsey-Wilson.

The club from Monticello was composed of high-class young men, and they took their defeat in the spirit of true Kentucky gentlemen.

Miss Bess Holladay, who lives near Columbia, now attending the Moody Institute of Music, Chicago, was a recipient, last week, of a high compliment. There are over five hundred pupils in the institution, and the management was requested to send a troupe of Wheaton college to render a program, the best voices in this institution to be selected. Thirty young ladies, and young gentlemen were picked from the five hundred, Miss Holladay being one of the number. When it is considered that she had only been in the school two weeks, this was certainly a high compliment.

Messrs. Forree Hood and Ode Comer met with a narrow escape a few days ago. They were in a wagon, loaded with grain, and attempted to cross the creek at the Smith mill ford. The creek was flush and the horses were washed into deep water. The men made heroic efforts and finally reached the bank. They hallooed for assistance and neighbors came to their rescue, getting out the horses and wagon.

Mrs. G. W. Staples has purchased Mrs. G. F. Stults interest in their millinery business, and the parlors this season will be conducted by the former in the same rooms at Russell & Co's store. Mrs. Staples will be in the market for the next week or two, purchasing her stock in Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago. It is her intention to have the most attractive line ever exhibited in Columbia.

Born, to the wife of E. L. Sinclair, Feb. 27, a son.

ELD. JOHN L. BRANDT.

The revival meetings will begin at the Christian church next Sunday at eleven o'clock a. m., Elder J. E. Brandt of St. Louis, Mo., evangelist, with Mr. Berg and wife, chorus leader and assistant and personal worker will conduct these services. Mr. Brandt wishes all the members of the congregation to meet with him at the church Friday evening at 7 o'clock for a preparation service for the meetings. The general public is cordially invited to attend these meetings and the pastors and their congregations who are in town are earnestly solicited to join with us so far as they can conscientiously do so in seeking to build up all christians and win souls to Christ.

The following item shows something of the work and ability of Mr. Brandt. TEXAS—John L. Brandt and his company of Christian workers have won their way to the hearts of the Belton people, and have carried away with them the love and prayers of hundreds who have been blessed. Brother Brandt is a great Gospel preacher, who presents the truth in love, but in all its purity and power. He is clear and forceful and there is no uncertain note in what he says. —Rev. W. M. Williams, Belton, Texas.

Last Saturday Mr. A. I. Hurt received the announcement of the marriage of his niece, Miss Ruth Lucille Hurt, of De Bois, Nebraska to Mr. Theron E. Evans, Seneca, Nebraska. The bride is a daughter of the late Finis E. Hurt and a most accomplished young lady. The groom is an industrious young farmer and son of the most prominent lawyer of Seneca.

STRAYED:—A black dog, answers to the name of "Jim". End of nose bears mark of injury. Any information will be gladly received by J. C. Strange, at this office.

Mr. Lee Lawless, who was a brother-in-law of Grant Myers, the gentleman killed in Indiana, a few days ago, was in Columbia last Friday, en route from the scene of the killing to his home in Russell county. The full particulars of the killing can be found elsewhere in this paper.

Rev. Edgar W. Barnett has accepted a call from the Baptist Church, Fort Myers, Fla. He and family left Hopkinsville for that point a few days ago. He will preach to the one Church at a salary of $1,000 per year, parsonage furnished.

Approaching Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Garrison are sending out the following invitation: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Garrison invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter, Virgie, to

Mr. W. G. Mullinix, on Sunday evening the twelfth of March nineteen hundred and eleven at half after two o'clock. At Home Columbia Kentucky.

Barred Plymouth Rock Fowls Exclusively—Eggs Eggs.

15 eggs $1.00, 100 eggs $5.00. I have a fine grade of fowl stock from the noted breeders as Pope & Pope, Louisville Ky. Mrs. Ida H. Paxton, 18-3m Roilingburg, Ky.

Eld. Brandt, who is to commence a series of meetings at the Christian church, this place, next Sunday, is not a stranger to Kentucky. He has held a number of very successful meetings in the State. Last year he spoke for two weeks at Glasgow, the whole town taking an interest.

Mrs. Georgia Shelton filled Miss M. L. Young's place in the Graded School last week. The latter was called to New Castle, to see a sick niece, but death came before she reached home. In the death of her relatives, Miss Young has the sympathy of this town.

Our folder got out of commission last week and a number of papers were torn so badly they could not be sent to subscribers. We did the next best thing, and mailed about seventy-five half sheets. We trust that this accident will not again occur.

Mrs. Nancy Bryant, wife of Daddie Jim Bryant, 73 years old, was given a surprise dinner a few days ago. Mr. C. C. Holt, who was present, states that it was a magnificent occasion and very much enjoyed. There were 41 children and grandchildren present.

The Graded School proposition was submitted to the voters of the Russell Springs precinct, Russell county, last Saturday. The school side won easily, the majority being about four to one. There is some talk that the election was not legally called, but it is mighty hard to down a Graded School proposition.

Quarterly meeting services at the Methodist church next Sunday forenoon and evening. Presiding Elder Hulse will preach at the evening services. There will be no other night services at the Methodist church during the series of meetings, to be in progress at the Christian church.

Rev. J. R. Crawford will not be absent in special meetings this week as he had contemplated. There will be the usual morning services at the Presbyterian church on next Sabbath, but owing to Evangelistic meetings at the Christian church there will be no night service.

It is known that several brick buildings will go up in Columbia this year. If there are those who have not yet made up their minds to build, they should come to a conclusion, in order that a sufficient amount of brick could be burned. It would save time and wood.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harmon, who live near Columbia celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage last Friday. There were many who called and at the noon hour a most sumptuous dinner was spread.

More Votes in Piano Contest.

We will give 50,000 votes with each Sewing Machine sold at any price. We have them at $12.50, $16.00, $18.00, $25.00, $30.00 and $35.00, the best make on the market.

It will soon be time for onions and lettuce.

For Rent.

I have an eight room dwelling on an acre lot in Columbia for rent. T. G. Rasner

Madison County.

Berea, Ky., Feb. 20-'11.
Editor of the News;

As I sit in my room this afternoon and hear the ringing of the Church bell I am reminded of the few weeks in which I attended the L. W. T. S., in the winter of 1906, and became familiar with the pealing of that clock which is a monument to the memory of our dear fathers, and into whose face all Columbia never grows tired of looking.

The writer is a native of Craycraft, Adair county, but in the course of his destiny he has lodged in Berea College, taking an Academic course as a beginning in preparation for a life of the ministry of the gospel of Christ.

Some of you are perhaps familiar with the institution of Berea College, which was founded in the year 1853, for the benefit of the people of Kentucky who believe that free speech should be maintained for both whites and blacks.

Soon after there were two young negro soldiers applied for instruction to the school. They were admitted just as a Northern or European school would admit them, and of their race, those who so desired, remained in school at Berea, until six or seven years ago, when such education was prohibited by law. Then Berea transferred the negroes to Lincoln Institute.

The college is located in Madison county, the same county in which the Boone party built their forts. It is on the dividing line between the mountains and the famous "Blue Grass" region. Two miles east is the pinnacle from which Daniel Boone first viewed the fertile plains of Kentucky. The scenery is remarkably attractive, the elevation being 1,070 feet. The grounds embrace about seventy acres not counting some five or six thousands of acres lying outside of the town of Berea. Living fountains of water are supplied from reservoirs five miles back in the foothills of the mountains. There are about twenty-five public buildings in the institution. Steam heat and electric lights are supplied in them by the college.

The Carnegie Library, which cost $40,000 is provided with 25,000 volumes.

The hospital and college physician together with a corps of nurses, care for all students when sick, without extra charge, except for chronic diseases, surgery, board, bandages and medicine at cost price.

For general culture and recreation besides the various courses of study open to students, there are many opportunities, such as the Lyceum course of entertainments; the Harmonia Society of one hundred voices; Choral classes, in which may be had the best of instruction in singing by any and all students without extra charge; the college Brass Band of some twenty members; seven literary societies, which are maintained by the students; religious societies consisting of senior, junior and intermediate; Christian Endeavor, Young Women's Christian Association, and Young Men's Christian Association.

The Y. M. C. A., is the greatest moral factor in Berea for young men. It holds its regular meetings on Sunday evening, conducts prayer meeting in the various men's dormitories, with an attendance of some three hundred, and Bible study classes with an enrollment of two hundred and fifty young men.

The college authorizes a revival meeting each winter, which reaps a great harvest of souls. In January during an eight days revival, there were two hundred and eighteen souls which professed salvation. It should be inferred from these statements that the college is distinctly Christian, but it is undenominational.

All students attend brief religious services in chapel Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings, and on Sunday evening.

On Sunday the students meet in the largest college Sunday School in the State. There are about seven hundred of the students enrolled in the Sunday School.

The catalogue shows that last year there were students here from twenty-seven of our United States, and five foreign countries.

You probably wonder why I have been telling you all about Berea, well it is just this: because I wanted to write to all my old friends and relatives, and because I knew more about Berea, than any other place, and am greatly concerned in it.

I remember many days of life in old Adair, and love to retrace the steps that have brought me thus far, and think of the many incidents that go to make up my boyhood days.

As I read the News, I see the names of people who appear to be at the head of affairs in different form, that I never knew of, and many of the names that used to meet my eyes, have now passed from sight. But this only reminds me of the fact each day is one act in the drama of life, and that each act introduces new actors.

It is a source of pleasure to me to read of the constant improvement of the town of Columbia. When I meet a stranger or friend who has been to Columbia, and have occasion to tell him that that is my home town, I most always receive the reply that it is a beautiful and prosperous inland town.

If there are any of my old friends, relatives, or even strangers who would care to write to me, I shall be glad to hear from them.

Respectfully,
Jesse L. Murrell.

As True as Gospel.

A fiery temper doesn't indicate a warm heart.

Rumor travels on the path of suspicion.

It takes hardships a long time to sail out of sight.

A floating debt is anything but a life preserver.

The more unselfish you are the more selfish you may make others.

Probably there is nothing more industrious than an idle rumor.

The thorn of the rose doesn't trouble the chap who knows how to pluck it.

It's easier for a man to deceive himself than it is to fool his neighbors.

The longer we live the more we realize what we might have done but didn't.

All men are born honest, but it requires constant practice to keep that way.

The good promoter is true to his trust.

If you could have what you wanted it, would you want it?

A man is down in the world when he's on his uppers.

A woman gets as excited over a wedding in the neighborhood as a man does over a baseball game.

As soon as a girl gets married she gets busy and tries to help other girls get into the same kind of trouble.

Hope is a valuable asset-until you try to raise money on it.

Instead of telling what you are going to do tell what you did.

A man fears a woman's tears as much as he fears her tongue.

It takes a contrary woman to like a man because she doesn't.

The man who flatters a woman can make her believe almost anything.

The more unselfish you are the more selfish you may make others.

A quick way to get rid of your money is to run up bills and pay them.

The quickest way to convince a girl that you have good taste is to tell her she is good looking.

Belle Plain, Kansas.Editor News:

After reading so many letters of interest from so many different states in this weeks paper, I feel that a few lines from this berg might be of interest again.

It seems that the home folks must be doing the reading while us foreigners, are doing quite a bit of the writing.

Mr. Owen McKinley's letter from Maugum, Okla., was very interesting to us Belle Plaineites.

Come again Owen. I too think Mr. H. C. Rogers might send in a few lines from Sewellton.

I suppose that Miss Ghoul Helm and Miss Maggie Wooldridge must be napping again.

Miss Ella Lester could write such an interesting letter from Kendall.

In fact any of you good people could write letters that would be of much interest to us people who use to live in your neighborhood.

We had four days rain last week, which was appreciated by every one, have had a little snow and some winter weather since the rain, but today has been very pleasant which is nice on the little chicks.

Florence Blankenship put a hen with 19 little chicks out in the sunshine to day, pretty soon a mischievous pup devoured four of the number. The remainder are safely shut up in a box while that pup is in danger of a stove stick or broom handle.

Mr. Elmer Wooldridge and Mr. Tom Blankenship took a ramble through Arkansas a couple of weeks ago There is some Government land to be filed on near Mt. Ida, Arkansas, and the boys want to view them out a home stead. They visited Little Rock and Hot Springs, and Tom stopped off at Wagoner Okla., to visit his brother Charles Blankenship, whom he had not seen for twenty-three years.

The boys returned thinking Belle Plaine, is good enough for them. The boys reported Arkansas plum trees being in full bloom and turnip greens in abundance.

Moving is in progress around here now. Mr. Edd Blankenship moved last Tuesday over N. E., of town. Mr. J. H. Smith is aiming to move next, now from Cicero to a farm 1 1/2 in S. W. of town.

Mr. Bradford Brooks and family have moved back to Belle Plaine. Mr. W. S. Knight has bought some lots in town and is now erecting a house on them.

On Monday night Feb. 6 the members of the A. O. U. W. lodge No. 83, invited their families to attend their lodge and entertained them for awhile with a nice program after which they served an oyster supper.

Sample Helps Frail Women

So many women are dragging out weary lives just because their digestive organs are weak. The result is poor circulation, nervousness and the verge of invalidism. It is often very unnecessary and the woman's own fault.

The first thing to do is to look to the welfare of your bowels. There the trouble usually lies. All physicians know that a large percentage of women are habitually constipated, and from this results indigestion, piles, weariness, etc., that women constantly complain of.
But there is no use taking "female remedies" and things of that kind until you have started your bowels to moving.
You will find that when the bowels move regularly once or twice a day all your petty ills will disappear. Take a good mild laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for awhile and you will find yourself rapidly getting better and stronger, your bowels will regulate themselves and work at stated times, and then your headaches and dizziness will disappear. Don't take strong cathartic pills or salts, but just such a mild and pleasant-tasting remedy as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

You can obtain a bottle of your druggist for fifty cents or one dollar, and either size may be enough to permanently cure you. Thousands of women keep it regularly in the house and will no longer be without it, as it cures them and can be used with safety by every member of the family, down to the youngest child, but if you have never used it take the advice of Mrs. Earl S.
Cox, 409 Twenty-fifth street, Moline, Ill., and Mrs. Ellen Dungan, Muncie, Ind., and send to Dr. Caldwell for a free trial bottle, as they did, and learn for yourself what it will do in your own case. That it will cure you, as it did them, there is no doubt.
Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail.
For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

New Use for Old Fences.

For the past two or three years manufacturers of pencils have been at their wits end to discover a new source of supply of cedar wood which is absolutely necessary in the making of their product. The supply of cedar fresh from the forest has been diminishing so rapidly that the pencil people were "up a tree" as it were. The pencil trust's agents in the field, however, one day made a discovery that many of the "zig-zag" fences of the country, especially those in the South are composed of thousands of feet of precious heart-cedar,
venerable and well-seasoned.

The fortunate owner of a "zig-zag" fence of the cedar persuasion has found that he can sell it for enough to replace it with about four times its length in substantial wire fence. Needless to say, this has brought much happiness to such owners, because they have long preferred the wire fences, but could not afford them or, at least, imagined they could not on account of the high price set upon them by the wire-fence trust. As the matter stands today, however,
the pencil trust will cheerfully take up a cedar "zig-zag" fence, practically useless and all but

(INCORPORATED.)

CHAS. S. HARRIS EDITOR.

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interest of the City of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Post-office as second class mail matter.

WED. MARCH. 8, 1911.

The Executive committee of the Democratic party, in its session last Friday, stood pat on its original position to hold a primary, but extended the time from May the 27th, to July 1st. The proposition to allow the party to meet in convention before the primary, for the purpose of making a platform, was laid to rest, as it were, by a vote of nine to three. In short, and in fact only three of the committee, S. T. Spaulding, Harry Lazarus and W. F. McDonough voted for a platform convention, while the other nine muzzled the party, and virtually issued the decree that the Democrats of this state shall not meet in the capacity of convention to pronounce their position on the vital questions that confront political parties. This decision, this action, is autocratic, and the most sweeping and damaging to the true spirit of Democratic principles and popular government that has ever been issued by the representatives of our party. Intelligent and unwavering Democrats, from nearly every part of the state, implored the committeemen to allow the party the right to form a platform of principles, to bind the party, and pledge its nominees before the voters of the state. They ignored every plea, denied every right, and as a result, we are on the high sea floating, floating, with fearful punctures in the judgment and expectations of those who believe in free speech, and a square, open, honest deal. The great injustice and cowardice done the party that has lived through so many severe crisis, suffered many defeats, battling for principles and justice is apparent to all. At this juncture, under existing conditions, before the intelligence of this state, and for party preservation, we must take a position, as a party, on the important questions that confront us. The bare pledge of a candidate does not bind the party, and will not as a rule, satisfy thousands of Democratic voters. Nominations are no longer equal to election, and the people are tired of dodging politicians. The committee can yet save the party, but it cannot do it by ignoring the demands and desires of the thousands who cast the votes in the final contest. Again we insist that the committee call a platform convention, and that before the first day of June. The committee was created to serve and not to boss the party. It has no right to deny a convention for the purpose of making a platform, and in so doing it is undemocratic. The decree on the part of the majority of the committee, to set our nominees adrift without party pledges, is nothing but a cowardly attempt to dodge issues and carry water on both shoulders. It will not work for the good of the party, nor for our nominees, and will prove the most costly blunder made for years. The News has no faith in such a course, and does not believe in it even if it meant victory.

Mr. Garnett, of our town, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General, took an open, active position last week to induce the Executive committee to call a platform convention before the primary. There is no doubt as to his position, and that he firmly believes such a step necessary and fair to the party. He does not believe in dodging any issue, and his stand is heartily endorsed by many representative Democrats who joined in the request that the committee give a platform convention. He believes the committee should stand by their call for a primary, but they should permit the party to take a position. In short, he stated to us that he was willing and anxious to stand on a platform that the Democrats of this state would make, that he believed the party would take the right side of every question affecting the peace and prosperity of our state, but this could not be done except in a representative convention. Mr. Garnett has an abiding confidence in the united wisdom of the Democrats of Kentucky, when in convention assembled, and believes they will declare for such principles as will give to the greatest number the greatest amount of good. He personally stands for progressive government, and there is not a doubt that the great majority of Democrats are with him.

Wm. Loremer, a Republican United States Senator from Illinois, won out last week. It was claimed by the opposition that Lorimer won his seat by fraud, and a strong effort was made to oust him. His friends knew that if an extra session was called he would certainly go, hence action at the close of the session in order to save him. He was retained by a majority of six. Both the Kentucky senators voted in his favor. In the light of things, senator Bradley's action was not a surprise. Senator Paynter's vote is inexcusable, a statement that will be verified if he again offers for office.

The Sixty-first Congress ended at noon last Saturday, having failed to pass two of the most talked about measures presented during the session, that providing reciprocity with Canada and the permanent tariff board bill submitted by the President. Mr. Taft immediately made good his threat to call an extra session and in his proclamation named April 4 as the date when both branches shall reconvene. Confusion, almost without a precedent in the history of Congress, marked the closing.

Senator Bailey, of Texas, piqued at the attitude of his Democratic colleagues on the proposal to ratify the new State Constitution of Arizona, including the initiative, referendum and recall features, tendered his resignation to the Vice President. Mr. Sherman refused to accept, and the Texan immediately telegraphed his resignation to the Governor of his State. The latter urgently requested the Senator to reconsider, and several hours later the resignation was withdrawn.

Hon. D. C. Edwards landed several Presidential postmasters last week, Mr. Catron, at Somerset, being one of the number.

Congress adjourned last Saturday.

For Attorney General.

James Garnett is one of the most prominent and best known Democrats in Kentucky. He was born in Adair county, this State, and after obtaining his education he took up the study of law, was admitted to the bar, and has since then practiced his profession in Columbia, Adair county, Kentucky. He was elected to the office of County Attorney of Adair county, and held the position a number of years, and was a most capable and efficient official. For a long time he represented the Eleventh District as a member of the Democratic State Central Committee, and for years he has been prominent in the councils of the Democratic party. He is a well known Mason, being Past Grand Master of the Kentucky Masons.

Mr. Garnett has announced himself a candidate for the nomination of Attorney General, subject to the action of the Democratic party. He is a life-long Democrat, a splendid lawyer, an affable gentleman, and a strictly conscientious, honorable man. A man who can be relied upon under all circumstances to do his duty honestly and fearlessly. He will make no promises or pledges but what he feels absolutely certain he can carry out, and if elected to the office of Attorney General will undoubtedly give the State a clean, able administration strictly along business lines.—Park City News, Bowling Green.

SHELBY FOR HIM.—Hon. James Garnett, of Adair county, was here the first of the week meeting the voters and talking up his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General. Mr. Garnett is one of the best known lawyers in the State and a life-long Democrat. He is well qualified for the position and will be strongly supported in this county.—Shelbyville News.

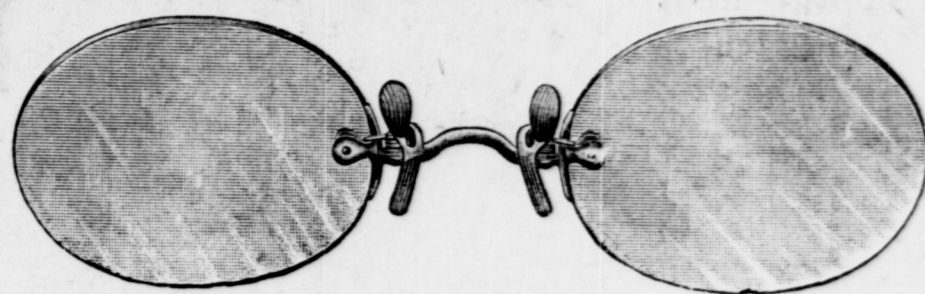

Hon. James Garnett, of Adair county, candidate for Attorney General, was here Monday afternoon, on his way back from Taylorsville, where he spoke that day. He has a big following in this county and makes friends of all whom he meets.—Shelbyville Record.

Hon. Jas. Garnett, of Columbia who is a candidate for Attorney General was in town Monday shaking hands with the voters. Mr. Garnett is well-known over the State and is an able lawyer. If nominated he would carry the strength of the Democratic party and would make the State an excellent official.—News Leader, Springfield Ky.,

Hon. James Garnett, of Columbia, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General, is in the city meeting friends. Mr. Garnett is an able lawyer, a Democrat without a blemish, and a royal good fellow.—Messenger, Bowling Green Ky.

One of the most attractive speakers among the long list of Democratic candidates who will Guthrie, Oklahoma.

As a copy of the Adair county News has fallen into my hands it makes me think of olden times and I like to read the letters. It has been twenty years since I left Kentucky; I stayed with my father until I was thirty-two years of age, and on Harrods Fork, probably some one will remember me, Pierce Royse. I have been at Guthrie only a few days; I am keeping house with my sister, Amanda English for a short while. I have traveled around most all over Texas, can give a true description of almost any county. I will give some of the deaths that might interest some of the Adair county people, Charlie Carter and Jeff Creel were buried at Boise City, Owen Carter, a son of Charley was killed on the train, swept off by a bridge as a brakeman. I lived at Boise sixteen years, helped my brother build the first house that was ever there and broke up one hundred acres before the railroad came, and then he sold it out in town lots for what he could get, one hundred and eighty acres.

Boise is a fine town now, is surrounded by a fine country and is the best trading point in North Texas. I have lived in Hill county for twelve years, the Adair county people are all doing well, Scott Walker, Tyler Chandler, the Pattersons, Englands, Blairs and Harvey's are all doing well that came from Adair. Uncle Ike Janes is well to do, he found his lost boy, Muncy, who left home when a small boy and was gone sixteen years. He got married and his mother-in-law wrote to his parents and then they flew to see Muncy, in Young county Texas and found him doing well.

Kelsay McClister was buried in Hill county, his widow and children are doing well, they live at Bynum, Hill county; the children are all married but one, Leslie, who, lives with his mother; and three girls, and Finis are doing well, I have been in all of their homes. Finis is a gospel singer and his wife an organist Ruel Edrington was buried at Hillsboro last fall; he was educated at Columbia, Kentucky. He farmed and ranched in Hill county for several years when he went into the banking business. For a number of years he was President of the First State Bank at Hillsboro when he died. His son takes his place. Tom Conover is another bank holder there from Adair county, he being the son of Marion Conover. Harden Harvey was buried at Hillsboro three months ago. George Traylor is road commissioner and owns a good farm and doing well, his brother Joe lives at Dallas and is a carpenter contractor and has made a fortune. The Curry boys live at Dallas, Ed is a boss carpenter, gets $5.00 per day. John B. Curry attends to the Fair Grounds and keeps boarders and is doing well. Jim runs a wood yard.

John Cook and Blair Roul live at Dallas.

Some correspondent was inquiring for Fee Turner, he was buried at Blair, Oklahoma. He raised a fine family and the girls married in Hill county and done well. I have visited all of their homes. They all moved farther West. Tom Turner lives at Balinger, Texas. He did well and educated his children and they are married and doing well. Tom lost his wife and married a railroad widow.

The Wooten boys are doing well at Hillsboro, Tom is in the auto business the others in the drug business. Ben Harvey is street sprinkler and has been for several years and is doing well.

The most sorrowful thought that is on my mind is the death of my nephew with whom I lived for ten years. Ed Patteson died the 26th, of February, he was sick only ten days with brain fever. He was the best friend I had in Hill county. He was of sterling character and a religious man.

Well I will lay aside my pen for the present as I know nothing about this town only I see it is a large one and the ground is as red as barn paint; it has been very cold here for several days. I have two brothers living in this state about 100 miles from here at Washington. I haven't seen them since I left Kentucky, Sherrod and Bird, I saw Bird fifteen years ago.

Miss Jimmie Conover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Conover, this county, who was in school at Glasgow, was taken quite ill last week. Her parents went to Glasgow and upon the advice of physicians, conveyed their daughter to a Sanitarium in Louisville. It is hoped that she will be speedily restored.

Marrowbone.

The farmers are very busy plowing, these pretty days.

Mr. W. H. Brake, formerly of this place, but who has been living in Glasgow for the past year, has purchased the Jake Fudge place, and moved back last week. Mr. Baake and wife think there is no place like Marrowbone.

Davis Butler was at Arat Monday on business.

Mr. John Smith, of South Marrowbone, was at this place Friday.

Prof. C. E. Wilson sold a fine horse last week to Mr. Pig Anderson, for a fancy price.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Farris and children, spent Wednesday at Mr. John Norris'.

Prof. C. D. Fields, of Breeding, made a business trip to Arat, Monday.

Mr. C. J. Gray & Sons are preparing to build another store on the same ground where the store was burned last September. The new one will be a great deal larger than the one burned. We certainly do need another store here.

The graded school here is progressing nicely. There are more than 100 enrolled. We have selected two good teachers—Misses Lena and Emma Palmore, of Pertmon, Monroe county. Miss Lena has been a teacher for the past fourteen years, and is one of the best in the state. She holds a life certificate.

Mrs. Flora Shannon is getting along nicely with her music class.

Misses Georgia Pace and Ella Butler have recently purchased two new Howard pianos.

Miss Ella Butler, who has been very sick with bilious fever, is some better now.

A young lady who resides at this place, and is about 20 years of age, has just completed her eighth crazy quilt. Who can beat that?

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Butler and son, Billie, made a business and pleasure trip to Nashville last week, by boat, and have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gray and daughter and son will not go to Mexico they decided Kentucky was the best home for them; we are all glad that they are not going to move away.

There has been a great meeting in session at Sunny Point Church south of Marrowbone last week.

Gainesville, Ga.

Perhaps a few words from a Russell county boy will be interesting to a few readers of the News, so as my other letter escaped the waste basket, I will try again.

I am always glad when the day rolls around for the News to come, for I do enjoy reading it, as it gives so many interesting facts from the section surrounding my old home.

The people are plowing and making preparations for cotton, corn etc.

It has been warm most of the time since I have been here. The peach trees are nearly in full bloom, but the cold spell the other day injured the crop considerably. They bloomed earlier than they have for many years.

Georgia is a prohibition state. I have not seen a man who thought every side of the road was his own. Most of the young men and boys stay on their own side, for they know what is best for them.

I am staying near a church, in which they have monthly meeting, Sunday School and prayer-meeting. Most of the people are religious, and they have a great success in their meetings.

I have been teaching school here two months, in a district of 40 pupils, of which 31 are enrolled.

It is a great satisfaction to hear the train whistle, and the various factory whistles make one realize that he lives in a world of industry.

Many good wishes for success to the Mews.

Farmers are busy in this section.

Several attended the Jones sale at Hatcher.

Messrs. R. W. and S. N. Wilson bought a nice lot of hogs from Mr. H. N. Bridgwater this week.

Mr. Bunk Gill of Adair Co., passed through here this week.

Mr. James T. Butler is on the sick list.

February 28th Mr. Burn Kelly and Miss Emma Wilcox were quietly married. A nice supper was given by the father and mother of the groom.

Wm. Campbell and Dick Weldon of the L. W. T. S. were the guest of Fulton Cox Friday night.

In some papers belonging to Mrs. W. D. Bridgwater the following was found, I wonder if any are now living in Columbia who attended this social gathering more than half a century ago.

Miss Tupman your company is respectfully solicited at a social Tea Party, at Washington Hall in Columbia on Saturday 22nd inst at 5 1/2 o'clock P. M. Sam'l P. Suddarth, Wm. E. Russell, Jos Z. Wheat, Tho. H. Frazier, John A. Peebles, Sam McMurray, Charles J. Taylor, Stephen D. Johnston, Sam B. Field, committee of invitation Columbia Ky., February 15 1847.

Irvin's Store.

We had an inch of snow last week, and most of the peaches are killed.

Babe Harris and family have gone to Illinois. Mr. Perkins Bryant sold part of his things, and then decided to stay in old Kentucky.

Lando Meece and wife are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. M. T. Wilson to-day.

The Rice Bros., have moved their mill to Salem, and begun sawing lumber.

Mrs. Julia Scales, wife of Thomas Scales, died last Friday night. She had long been afflicted with tuberculosis.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Luttrell died at Norwood, Pulaski county, Friday, and was brought home to the Union grave yard for interment.

Nell.

A great many people have colds and several cases of la-grippe.

Walker Bros., have returned from Louisville, where they have been selling tobacco and they report prices not very good.

Mr. Chas. Bell visited his sister, Mrs. S. A. Taylor, of Montpelier last week.

W. H. Rose sold to G. E. Nell one horse. Price unknown.

Misses Maggie Walker and Rosa Bell spent Thursday of last week with their aunt, Mrs. Mary Bell.

Mrs. Ella R. Nell and her little son, Carl, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rose this place.

Several from this place attended meeting at Antioch last Sunday.

Mr. E. L. Hamilton and wife, of Edmonton visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Walker, one night last week.

Master James Hunter stepped on a nail one day last week, hope it will not prove serious.

Mrs. Cattie Bell and little children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hestand from Monday until Thursday.

Truthful James.

"Speaking of cold weather," remarked truthful James, "I spent one winter in North Dakota. I supposed that I had seen some cold weather before that, but, as a matter of fact, I never had."

"Along about the middle of February the weather got down to business. It had just been foolin' along before that time with the mercury standin' at from 30 to 40 below zero, but when the cold weather commenced to hump its back and do things, that spell of weather when it was only 40 below seemed to hev been like the warm spring-time, Gentle Anna."

"You may dispute my statement, but I want to say to you that one day I was b'lin water to make coffee when the door of the shack blew open and let the cold in right sudden. Well, that bi'lin water in the kettle froze sittin' right there on the stove while it was bi'lin to beat the band. The fact is that it froze so sudden that when I went to pick the chunk of ice out of the kettle the ice was so hot yet that it burned my hand."

"There are a good many people I hev told that to, who don't believe it. That is one of the most discouragin' things in this world, to know that a thing is true and yet have your friends doubt you just because they never saw anything like it. And yet all of 'em believe any amount of things that they never saw and never will see."

"That same winter all the seed potatoes I hed froze hard as so many bones. I did not know what to do at plantin' time, not havin' the coin necessary to pay for more potatoes and I hed my doubts about them frozen potatoes growin' well. However, I said to myself, says I, 'I will just try 'er a whirl, anyway.' I planted the potatoes and they grew all right, but when I came to dig 'em in the fall blamed if I didn't find that I had raised a crop of snowballs. Yes, sir, that field run a hundred and fifty bushels of snowballs to the acre. It was one of the most discouragin' things I had to meet that year."

"I had a favorite dog that I raised till it was 4 years old. He was a good dog and generally sensible, but had a fool habit of barkin' at the moon whenever it was moonlight. The coldest night the moon was full. It was nearly as light as day."

"The dog was anxious to get out and do his regular stunt of barking at the queen of the night, but I was afraid he would freeze if he got out, so I kept him in the house. He was all broke up about it and whined and cried to get out. I never saw a dog really shed tears before."

"Finally, he worked on my feelings till I consented to let him out and just take one bark. I thought when he got out and found how everlastin' cold it was he would be satisfied to come back into the house and stay. So I opened the door and the fool dog jumped out. He lit barkin' and got the full force of the northern right in his mouth. It just solidified him right there. He never got his mouth shut. I reached out and pulled him inside the door, but he was froze so stiff that he broke in two when I dropped him on the floor."

"The next morning when I went out to investigate I found two of the dog's barks froze out there in the yard. I laid 'em on a shelf in the woodshed, but they didn't thaw out till spring."

"There was a snake that got caught out in that blizzard and, of course, it was froze stiff, all right. I concluded that I would fix it good and plenty, and so I just broke it in four pieces and threw the pieces away."

"Well, I never thought any more about it till warm weather in the spring when, one day I seen a piece of a snake crawlin' round with somethin' in its mouth. Well, when I got a little closer I see that it was the piece of that snake that had the head on it, come to life. It had found the tailpiece and was carryin' it round till it could find the two center pieces."

"By and by it found 'em lyin' in the grass and then it laid 'em down in regular order and backed up ag'in 'em and stayed there till they had all growed together. And yet there are people who will contend that a snake hasn't any sense."

Toria.

Miss Nettie Roach spent a few days of last week with her uncle, W. M. Henager, who lives near Columbia.

Mrs. Margaret Platt spent a few days of last week with the writer and family.

The Mt. Pleasant school with Miss Lannah Janes as teacher is moving along nicely.

The writer was in your city Monday.

Attacks School Principal.

A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylva, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, biliousness, and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50c at Paul Drug Co.

Dirigo.

During the latter part of last week the farmers were very busy, and mustard greens were a common article of diet. But there has been a change, winter has again turned loose, and is playing havoc. He is accompanied by lagrippe. There is not a family in the whole neighborhood, that hasn't a sick member in it. There are hardly enough well persons to properly care for the sick. The scientists in speaking of Halley's Comet, which was so long the entire topic of discussion, must have been right in their theory, and only mistaken in the time. It will be remembered that they predicted that upon a certain day the old "Terra Firma" would pass through the tail of the comet, and that the gases from such contact would make the majority of the people sick. Well, the day came on, passed, and nobody was injured. The comet passed beyond our view, but from the amount of sickness, it appears that he is still in the great somewhere, and is switching his tail in this direction. Yes, the scientists were right in theory, but they miscalculated the time.

Joe Leonard, of Albany, who travels for Warren, Neeley & Co., called upon our merchants last Saturday.

Miss Tressie Polston, of Cumberland county, was at J. M. Campbell's last Saturday and Sunday.

Allen & Wooten sold a yoke of oxen to J. W. Simpson, for $72.50.

Tom Samuels, of Fairplay, did business here last Tuesday.

Mose Wooten spent several days last week at Greensburg and Campbellsville.

A couple of dogs belonging to Matthew Wooten made an attack upon some sheep the other day, but Allen Wooten happened to be near with a gun, and killed the dogs before any serious damage was done.

Mose Wooten bought a jersey cow from Capt. Bradshaw, for $60.

Woman in Business.

From my work I have become convinced that because a woman achieves financial and mental independence it by no means follows that she need lose a whit of feminine precisions and refinement. As I think over the long list of splendid woman of all ages and condition whom I have known in the business world it seems to me it would be difficult to find an equal number of women in any sphere of life who possess more of the spirit of true womanliness and by true womanliness I mean not alone nobility of character but all those dainty personalities of mind body and soul which are and always will be the everlasting joy and distinction of the true woman. There comes to my mind in this connection a certain gentlewoman of my acquaintance who for over twenty years has worked in the office of a certain concern and although her work is essentially masculine in its nature and her days are passed entirely among men I never knew a gentler or more delicate personality than her.

Meadow Creek Taylor County.

Editor News.

A little more than a year has elapsed since I was in the beautiful little city of Columbia and handed the News a dollar. How time flies! Love for Adair and her people is my heritage. So find enclosed one dollar to keep the News coming.

Will say that Meadow Creek takes in Hatcher and Roachville. Two telephone lines gives service to nearly every home between the two places.

Our mail is placed in the boxes daily.

A huckster makes weekly rounds to gather chickens and eggs.

Your efficient Hatcher correspondent is teaching a splendid school at that place.

Prof. Henderson, of Greensburg, also has an interesting school at Clay Hill. Both gentlemen are instructors of many years experience and the patrons should be congratulated on obtaining their services.

Money has been appropriated to build 4 iron bridges across Meadow Creek.

The public road crosses the creek eleven times between Hatcher and Roachville. And these bridges are sadly needed.

We have services Sabbath by able ministers. From the foregoing facts, the News can readily see that we are not idle if we are not as boisterous as Peter.

Mrs. J. T. Johnson who has been confined to her room for several weeks is improving slowly.

Messrs. Walter and Robert Gibson, of Cambellsville, were with their parents here Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Graham Supt. of public schools, and Miss Alice Shreve of Greensburg, visited the Clay Hill school Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Johnson and Perry-cuff are holding a series of meetings at Saloma, Taylor county.

Messrs. Joe Cofer and Walter Harmon will leave in a few days for Ill.

Miss Lula Gwynn of Cambellsville was the guest of friends Sunday.

Anderson Bros. of Greensburg passed through here last week large drove of hogs they purchased in Russell county.

Hogs are scarce in this locality and prices are weaker.

J. L. Miller christened his new home, "Egypt." Jimmie can sing "Down by the river," with nothing to answer in his final save the hoot of the owl.

Mrs. Nat Keltner who has been in bed five months doesn't seem to improve any, Dr. J. L. Atkinson is the attending physician.

Most farmers have plowed their sod land, some have burned plant beds. The all absorbing question is, "What will be the result of the years toil?"

I read with pleasure the spicy articles from Mr. Fred McLeans pen. Come often Mr. McLean and stay a long time you surely have pleasant memories of Meadow Creek.

With best wishes for the News.

A Fierce Night Alarm

is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, O., [R. R. No 2] for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks," he wrote "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. Kings New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, Hay Fever, La Grippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages fly before it. 50c and $1 Trial bottle free. Sold by the Paul Drug Co.
